On 9th June 2023 the International Betting Integrity Association (IBIA) reported suspicious betting on the match between Jack Main and Lisa Ashton in the Modus Super Series Event. The Modus Super Series is an independently run series of events.

After an investigation, the Darts Regulation Authority Chairman Nigel Mawer has decided that Jack Main has a case to answer for breaches of the DRA Betting Rules.

As a result of this decision, Main has been suspended from attending or competing in DRA sanctioned events until the conclusion of the hearing or hearings and the determination of this matter. Main has the right to appeal this suspension decision.

The matter will be referred to the DRA Disciplinary Committee where a formal hearing will take place at a date to be confirmed.

There is no suggestion that Lisa Ashton was involved in any way.
